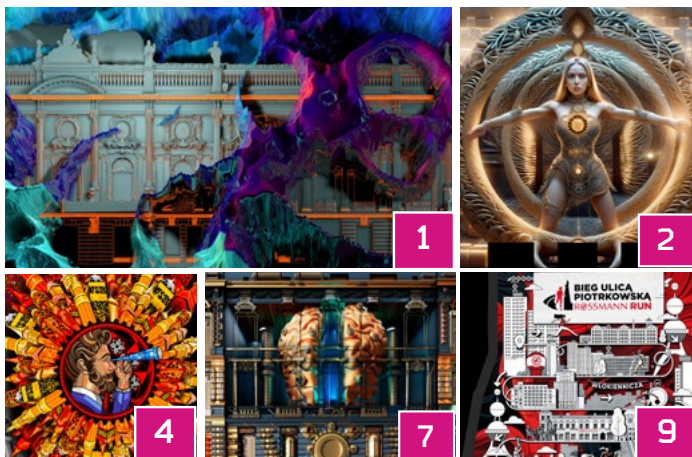

MAPPINGS / PROJECTIONS

- 1 „Beggars of Clouds”, Jésus Baptista, VJ Amadeo Savio
Palace of the Poznański family, 15 Ogrodowa St.
A work expressing deep concern that the future may erase the place of our natural environment, which is the foundation of civilization.
- 2 „UBUNTU”, V.P.M.
71 Piotrkowska St.
Media Patron: National Geographic
In UBUNTU, we see a reflection of humanity's achievement, the pursuit of peace. The belief in a bond of sharing is the foundation upon which civilizations have been built.
- 3 „A question of time”, Claudia Reh
Komuny Paryskiej Square
Time flows inevitably, mixing past and future. The projection explores chaos, entropy, and the poetry of life's colorful moments.
- 4 „Correlation”, Fényszáró Visual
1-5 Piotrkowska St.
The symbol of the cogwheel will be one of the main motifs of the visualisation, correlating and transmitting energy as civilisations evolve.
- 5 „The Complexity of Man”, Motion House Thailand
36-40 Piotrkowska St.
The complexity of the human being draws us in, sparking curiosity and a desire to absorb everything that can be defined as the Complex Human Mind
- 6 „IMPROMAP –a/v Live performance”, DJ Giramundo and Dancing Wind
28 Piotrkowska St.
Be a witness to the unfolding saga of human civilization, a captivating journey through the ages from the dawn of time to the present day.
- 7 „Compliance”, Dreamage
6 Tuwima St.
One of the biggest challenges currently facing AI is the issue of “alignment.” Should the motives and goals of artificial intelligence align with human values?
- 8 „Spiritual Genesis”, Gita Kurdpoor
99 Piotrkowska St.
Three distinct yet interconnected artworks, each representing a unique aspect of existence and spiritual growth.
- 9 „Run, human, run”, Sebastian Jachimowicz
7 Pomorska St.
Partner: Rossmann
Physical activity as one of the manifestations of self-love <3 Rossmann knows this – sponsor of the Rossmann Run along Piotrkowska Street.

INSTALLATIONS

- 10 „Sign”, Vendel & de Wolf (Light Art Collection)
Freedom Square
The spectacular, large-scale installation presents fire as a symbol of destruction, prompting us to reflect on the consequences of our actions.
- 11 „FACE IT!”, Katarzyna Łyszkowska
Staromiejski Park
Tackling the crisis of human overproduction of plastic, which adversely affects human health, increases social inequalities, leads to the devastation of biodiversity and accelerates global warming.
- 12 „Dancers in the mist”, Julian van Buul, Vincent Vriens, Joost van Dijk, Celine Werkhoven
Staromiejski Park
Walk into the mist, slow down and get completely absorbed in a magical landscape with dancing silhouettes, waving nature and rustling music.

- 13 „Portal of worlds”, Radu Ignat
Staromiejski Park
Transport yourself to an imaginary world of animals, insects and plants with the help of an unusual portal. What impact has civilisation had on them?
- 14 „Back to childhood”, D.N.A. Group
Manufaktura, has prepared something for you:
Manufaktura has prepared “Transcendent Spheres” for you, reminding us that art has the power to transform reality, revealing it in a new and surprising light.
- 15 „Enchanted in Photography: Portraits of Lodzers from the Early 20th Century”, ASP ŁÓDŹ | Alicja Dobrowolska, Weronika Toruch, Ariel Łuczak, Aleksander Siąkała, Supervisor: prof. ASP ŁÓDŹ, arch. Robert Sobański, arch. Aleksander Dynarek ASP ŁÓDŹ
Staromiejski Park
The audience will embark on a nostalgic journey to the 20th century. The installation will bring to life the figures of ordinary residents of historic Łódź.
- 16 „Windows of Lodz: Shadow Stories”, ASP ŁÓDŹ, Kacper Ćwir, Karolina Kowalczyk, Natalia Wójcik, Supervisor: prof. ASP ŁÓDŹ, arch. Robert Sobański, arch. Aleksander Dynarek ASP ŁÓDŹ
Staromiejski Park
Shifting shadow images tell the stories of the city, revealing it through different eras, from the Industrial Revolution to the present day.
- 17 „The Herring”, ASP WARSZAWA
Katarzyna Chyżyńska, Jarosław Gabler, Julia Grabowska, Michalina Kaza, Jerzy Mróz, Dziekan Rafał Rychter, Klaudia Kiercz – Długołęcka
Staromiejski Park
A modular spatial installation inspired by the fish market that existed in Park Staromiejski before World War II.
- 18 „Autonomous”, ASP WARSZAWA, prof. Krzysztof Franaszek, Mikołaj Drzymkowski, Klaudia Kiercz – Długołęcka
Staromiejski Park
Conceptually, the installation refers to the ever-expanding virtual world in which digital computing has become the new language and mode of communication.
- 19 „Life forces”, Teo Dumski Chomiak, Patrycja Obara, Kacper Łyszczarz, Marek Dziedzic, dr Jarosław Chomiak
Staromiejski Park
A living simulation of hundreds of thousands of spontaneously interacting particles, subjected to various forces. The resulting civilisations form a huge 360° image divided into 6 musical-visual zones.
- 20 „Wings of harmony”, Art High School, Wiktoria Głowińska, Laura Michalak, Jolanta Mastalerz, Supervisor: Jacek Vogel
Staromiejski Park
Using the beauty of butterflies and the lotus flower, a phenomenon of the natural world, we perfect ourselves. The lightness of the wings and the richness of the spots, a pattern as delicate as any of us. Mirrors show our reflection so that we can see perfection.
- 21 „Forms of Civilisation”, TEB Education School in Lodz
Staromiejski Park
Three luminous totems that symbolize different stages of development of the city and civilization. Each totem symbolizes a different period: past, present, future.
- 22 „Meanders of Lodz”, Lux Pro Monumentis Foundation
Staromiejski Park
Swim with the current of the golden Lodz. The lifeblood of Łódź' industry in the shadow of civilisation's harmful interference with the environment.
- 23 „Space Oddity”, Daniel Tkacz, Katarzyna Jędruszek
60-62 Piotrkowska St.
Glittering spheres forming a sky full of stars, linking the stories of civilisations with the mysteries of the galaxies.
- 24 „Gone in Lodz”, ASP ŁÓDŹ
Dominika Bulicz, Maria Pniewska, Wiktoria Kowalczyk Supervisor: prof. ASP ŁÓDŹ, arch. Robert Sobański, arch. Aleksander Dynarek ASP ŁÓDŹ
Park Staromiejski
A fascinating journey through the history of the city, revealing the secrets of its appearance in the 19th century. An installation modelled on the historic Pinkus House.
